IIM SHAW TO PITCH THE ENTIRE GAME TODAY AGAINST CINCINNATI

BY J. ED GRILLO.

CINCINNATI, April 4-lim Shaw is slated to pitch the entire gainst the Reds today. When the Nationals' train passed through Charottesville last night Joe Boehling received a telegram telling him of the death of his uncle. He left the train at Staunton and returned to Richmond. This leaves Griffith with but three pitchers, and he has decided to work Jim Shaw today and Johnson and Engel tomorrow. While the weather is threatening, it is not believed that it will rain, and a big crowd

The New Jersey player in the final block failed to show as good control as he exhibited in the former ones.

Allen made high runs of 57 and 40, Ralph's best was 14.

Slowly but surely the Texas towns are being checked off McGraw's calling list. Otto Jordan, at the helm in Dallas, was enough to keep Jawn away because of a certain unpleasantness in Atlanta a few years ago when Otto was manager there. Paul Sentell, leader at Galveston, became taboo while he was a member of the Phillies and had a tilt with the New York manager at the Polo Grounds Galveston was not big enough to hold both him and McGraw last week. Now Houston is excommunicated because of the belligerent attitude of Pat Newman. If this keeps up Gov. Colquitt can show his friendliness by calling the Texas Rangers off the Mexicans and offering them as a bodyguard to the much Waterlooed Little Napoleon.

It is probable that Chris Fienle will be the selection to do the pitching for Georgetown today. Fienle is undoubt-edly one of the steadlest pitchers in col-lere base ball, and with him going right Georgetown will have a good chance to gain a victory over Cornell. He is abso-lutely steady, and may be depended upon at all times.
